An island with high wildlife and environmental value fronting the River Medway near Eccles in the Medway Valley, Kent. In all extending to some 24.72 acres (10 hectares)

GUIDE PRICE £75,000 + VAT (FREEHOLD)

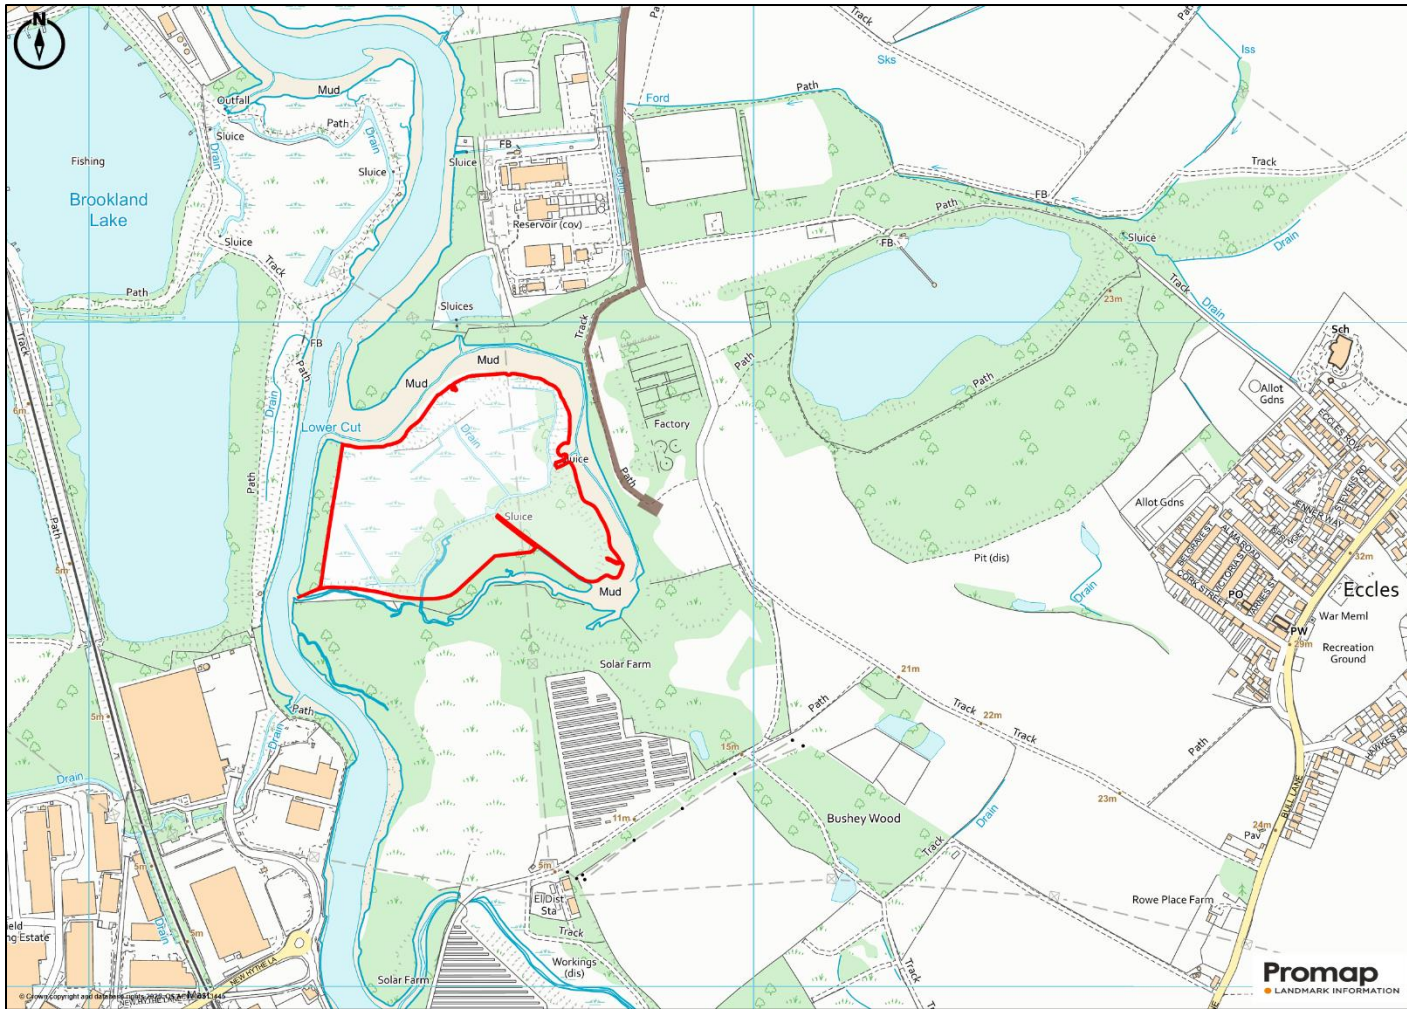

DESCRIPTION

Burham Island extends in all to some 24.72 acres (10 hectares) and comprises an island wetland with high wildlife and environmental value, fronting the River Medway's eastern bank. The island is located approximately 1km to the west of Eccles, and has most recently been used for Wildfowling.

The island is only accessible by foot at low tide, or by boat via the River Medway. Details of the access provisions are available on request.

DIRECTIONS

The nearest postcode to the land is ME1 3XZ. From the centre of Peters Village by the Coop, head south for 0.5 miles along Village Road which merges to become New Court Road. Take the left hand turn onto Old Church Road, and continue for 1 mile until you reach the treatment works on the right hand side. Immediately after the treatment works is a barrier, which subsequently leads to a small parking area via a dirt track. Here, you can access the island on foot at low tide only.

VAT; The vendors are VAT registered so VAT is payable in addition to the agreed sale price.

METHOD OF SALE: The land is offered for sale by Private Treaty. If demand dictates, the agent may set a deadline for Best and Final Offers in the event that significant interest is received.
